

A woman with a braid and a child with a red backpack are standing next to a dark-colored SUV with its rear hatch open. The woman is wearing a green shirt and a colorful bag, while the child is wearing a pink and grey shirt. They appear to be loading or unloading items from the car. The background shows a tree and some foliage.

Don't leave their safety to chance. 1 in 5 vehicles has an open recall.

Text now to
see if you need
a free safety
recall repair.

This is a FREE safety service; cell phone carrier message and data rates may apply. Your text inquiry will be shared with the National Safety Council (NSC) and your vehicle manufacturer, who may contact you to help you secure your free safety recall repair. Your number won't be shared with anyone outside of the NSC and your vehicle manufacturer, nor will it be sold to 3rd parties. To unsubscribe, text "stop" to 99724. DO NOT TEXT AND DRIVE.